The Competition Commission of India (CCI) is organizing its annual two-day National Conference on Economics of Competition Law and the Economists Conclave on 5-7 April, 2018* in New Delhi. The Conference is an attempt to bring together practitioners, academicians and professionals working in the area of economics of competition law from across the country and abroad to present papers and deliberate on various economic theories, tools of analysis and applications relevant to antitrust enforcement.

Call for papers will be announced in the first week of June.

 National Conference on Economics of Competition Law, an annual event of the CCI, is normally organized on the first Thursday and Friday of March every year. However, in 2018, the first Thursday of March being Holi, a national festival and holiday, the Conference is being organized in the first week of April.
